

Rooming In/Keeping Baby Near

It is recommended that a baby shares a room with its parents for at least the first 6 months, as this helps protect babies against cot death

Why is rooming in important?

I learn to recognise when my baby needs feeding

I learn how to comfort and handle my baby.

I learn to recognise my mummy

I can feed whenever I need to